OWNERS OF STOLEN PROPERTY SOUGHT

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department Eastern and Northeastern Division detectives recently arrested several suspects believed responsible for several burglaries. More than a half million dollars in jewelry and other items was recovered, but detectives have not been able to track down the owners of many of these items.

The suspects are believed responsible for several burglaries from Orange County to San Diego between September 2008 and March 2009. The locations burglarized were jewelry stores, stores where sunglasses are sold and individual residences.

The items recovered include: loose gemstones; military pins and medals; vintage, hand-made matchbooks, men's and women's watches, tennis bracelets and coins.

Individuals who believe the property may belong to them should contact Eastern Division at (858) 495-7900 or Northeastern Division at (858) 538-8000. You must provide receipts, police reports or other documentation which prove ownership of the property.

Photos of several items can be found on page two of this news release.
